

Student Conduct Agreement

These guidelines were created with the purpose of maintaining an enthusiastic, Christ-centered atmosphere while protecting all those attending.

All students participating in church events must adhere to the following:

Follow Travel Guidelines at all times

No possession of drugs, tobacco, or alcohol

Students may not drive or transport other students at any time during church activities

No weapons, fireworks, lighters, or other pyrotechnic devices (anything that explodes or catches fire)

No offensive or immodest clothing

No public displays of affection (PDA's)

No vulgar or off-color language or innuendos

The parking lot is not a place to hang out, make out, or peel out

Skate boarders must be wearing head protection

Respect "Off Limits" areas at all times

Group participation is expected

Respect staff, leaders, and fellow students and their property

Respect and comply with all event schedules

Failure to comply with these expectations may result in the delta rule

I understand the Student Conduct Agreement and agree to abide by this code of conduct.

The Delta Rule

The Delta Rule is the name of the student disciplinary guidelines. Categories may be skipped depending on the severity of the infraction.

First offense: Verbal warning

Minor offenses: Work detail or other activity

Major offenses: Loss of privileges. Must be at Leader's side at all times

Delta rule: Student (and possibly a chaperone) will be sent home at the parents expense

Parents information and consent

There are times when the student ministry events/activities can be very strenuous, requiring a great deal of movement or exertion. If you desire to limit your child's participation in any event/activity please submit your wishes in writing to the youth leader or youth minister prior to the event.

_____ has my permission to attend all youth activities sponsored by Holland Avenue Baptist church for the calendar year of 2009.

Having legal custody of the student named above, I give my legal consent to obtain medical attention deemed necessary by the Youth staff, adult leaders, or medical facility. I further understand that there are inherent risks involved in any ministry or event/activity and release the Church, Its staff, and volunteers of any liability against personal loss. I also acknowledge responsibility for the cost of any medical care not reimbursed by my health care plan or insurance provider.

I agree to reimburse all expenses for my child to having to be returned home because of illness or disciplinary reasons. I grant permission for pictures or videos taken of my child while attending church activities/events to be displayed or used in future services or promotions.

I have read and understand the student rules of conduct.
